

Call for Applications

Bergen-Belsen International Summer School 2023: Perspectives on Perpetratorship

As a part of the „Houses of Darkness. Images of a contested European Memory“ (HICE) project, Bergen-Belsen Memorial will host a summer school programme from August 18th till August 24th, 2023. We aim to gather international graduate & PhD students and young professionals who have due to their work a relation to Bergen-Belsen and its history. Building on our long-standing experience with student groups in different settings, we are convinced that we benefit from working with people from different professional and cultural backgrounds. Participants are expected to develop their own ideas and express themselves in different ways. Activities may include writing short texts, photo- and videography and social media.

During this year's Bergen-Belsen International Summer School we will focus on the topic of perpetratorship in the context of Nazi-persecution and in particular the Bergen-Belsen camps. We aim to reflect and detangle some of the complex issues that arise when focusing on perpetratorship. Topics include but are not limited to:

- Individual responsibility and leeway
- Motivation and dynamics of perpetration
- Reception and perception of perpetrator accounts
- Continuities of perpetrator careers and transitional justice
- Atrocity images and the perpetrator gaze
- Artistic exploration concerning perpetratorship

Mutual respect is an important value within all of our programmes. We strive to create a safe space for participants to share their views, questions and insights without the fear of being judged or discriminated against.

Preliminary Programme

	Aug 18	Aug 19	Aug 20	Aug 21	Aug 22	Aug 23	Aug 24
Morning		Getting to know the Memorial of Bergen-Belsen	Group work and time in the exhibition	Excursion and workshop "Euthanasia" Memorial in Lüneburg	Group work and time in the exhibitions/ on the former camp grounds	Group work	Feed-back and wrap up Departure of participants from 11am
Afternoon	Arrival of participants from 2 pm		Keynote by Dr. Elke Gryglewski	Free afternoon in Lüneburg	Workshop on perpetratorship in popular culture by Jakob Ganslmeier and Ana Zibelnik	Final presentation
Evening	Meet & Greet	Introduction of work	Perpetratorship in	Free time	Optional: group work	farewell party

		groups and group assignments	educational context, e.g. the HICE App
--	--	------------------------------	--	--	--	--	--

Accommodation will be in double rooms. The costs for the programme, accommodation and meals will be borne by the Bergen-Belsen Memorial. Participants are responsible for arranging their own arrival and departure as well as any necessary visas.

Registration

The working language of the Bergen-Belsen International Summer School is English. The participants' language skills must be sufficient to enable them to understand the preparatory texts, follow the sessions and actively participate in the discussions. Participants must be 18 or older.

To apply for this year's Summer School, we ask you to submit a video statement (max. 90 seconds) in which you tell us about yourselves, your expectations of the programme's topic and what you could contribute. No creative limits are set on how you present your statement, but it should be in English. Please also submit your application by filling out this form or using this QR code.

Additional information will be found on our website. Registration will close on June 25, 2023.

Contact

Monika Brockhaus (she/her) / Nicola Schlichting (she/her)

Bildung.bergen-belsen@stiftung-ng.de